

The Nature Education Foundation at The Santa Rosa Plateau
presents the 6th Annual

Nature Education Resource Forum

Walk on the Wild Side

Saturday, September 27, 2025 | 8a-3p

A Fun and Engaging Event for Teachers and Environmental Educators

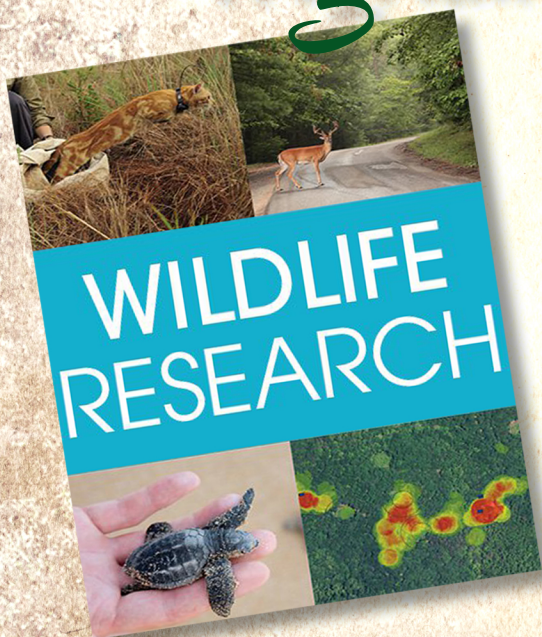

Sponsored By

Hosted by RivCoParks
In Partnership
With California
Fish & Wildlife

Program - What to Expect

- Keynote – “Awesome Wildlife Research Opportunities for Educators” – by Laine Gonzales
- Introducing CA Fish & Wildlife’s Project Wild Curriculum
- Four Hands-On Workshops
 - #1 Oh Deer – The Cycle of Life
 - #2 How Many Bears?
 - #3 What’s That? Habitat?
 - #4 Wings of Change
- Resource Booths
- Network with educators and providers
- All activities are NGSS aligned and appropriate for K-12 students

Register:

Site - Santa Rosa Plateau Ecological Reserve –
39400 Clinton Keith Road, Murrieta 923562

Registration: FREE

Morning Snacks Provided – Food Truck(s) for Lunch

RSVP REQUIRED: Register by September 22

LIMITED SPACE

No Day-of-Event Walk-Ins

Registration: the-nef.org